Just received another call from a woman who is interested in providing contractor support. She says the Bureau of Indian Affairs and Navajo Nation have both requested her company to provide services. I sent her the below information yesterday. I told her someone would return her a call today. Please advise.

Pamela,

Thank you for your offer to haul water. The EPA's Office of Research and Development handles vendor and contractor requests. Please follow the below information and someone will be in contact with you shortly.

Contractor Information

If you're interested in becoming involved in the response as a contractor, please visit the EPA website to submit your name, email, and information.
